

SAMPLE ANNOUNCEMENT SCRIPT

The following scripts are just ideas that can be read during morning announcements. Use this at your discretion. Schools may wish to customize it to reflect their own culture and personality.

FOR PRINCIPAL TO READ

Good morning! October is National Anti-Bullying Month. We here at XXX school are committed to creating a school where everyone feels welcome, but we can't do it alone. The truth is that you students are the ones who can accomplish that. I'm challenging each of you to reach out and do one act of kindness for someone at school. It'll make a difference.

STUDENT READERS

Monday

Hey everyone, You heard the challenge. We're celebrating National Mix It Up Day tomorrow. We're going to mix up things up around here. Wear a mixed up outfit during the day. At lunch we're going to mix it up by sitting at a different table than where we usually sit. But the key is, you have to talk to someone new!

Tuesday

Hey, hope you all mixed up your outfits for National Mix it Up Day. I saw some great stuff myself today. Remember at lunch to move your seat and talk to someone new.

Wednesday

Yesterday's Mix It Up Day was loads of fun. I made some new friends and hope you did too. We did this because we want to make a statement against bullying at our school. This is our school. We can end it if we want to. If you see it, call it. This is a no-bully school. Peace out.

SUGGESTED QUOTES:

- Stop and think. Words can hurt.
- Pay it forward – do something kind today
- No one can make you feel inferior without your consent. Eleanor Roosevelt, 1937
- You have to be unique, and different, and shine in your own way. Lady Gaga
- Do not allow people to dim your shine because they are blinded. Tell them to put on some sunglasses, cuz we were born this way! Lady Gaga
- Stand up for what you believe in, even if it means standing alone.
- It isn't big to make others feel small
- It's easy to bully, but the really strong help others
- If you see it, call it! Stop the hate, stop the bullying.
